Summer Concert Series Returns to Downtown Bellevue

Free live music noon to 1:30 p.m. every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday through Sep 14th

BELLEVUE, Wash. (July 11, 2017) – The Bellevue Downtown Association (BDA) is once again turning up the volume during Downtown Bellevue’s lunch hour. Beginning Tuesday, July 11th, the Virginia Mason Bellevue Medical Center Live at Lunch summer concert series will embark on a 10-week run of free live music every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from noon to 1:30 p.m. Local bands featuring Americana to rock ‘n roll will play at outdoor plazas and open spaces throughout Downtown Bellevue. The Bellevue Connection will host each Thursday concert. Concert-goers can also enter to win lunch for two for a year at Lunchbox Laboratory. Band information and concert locations can be found at BellevueDowntown.com.

“Summers in Downtown Bellevue are the perfect time to relax with a friend and listen to live music,” says BDA President Patrick Bannon. “From reggae to blues and country, to disco-soul; there is something for everyone.”

The annual Rockaoke contest where contestants sing with a live band is August 17th at the Bellevue Connection. Those interested in competing should email tyler@bellevuedowntown.org.

Event, venue information, and directions are available at BellevueDowntown.com or by calling (425) 453 – 1223. For day-of event updates, follow the Bellevue Downtown Association on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.
